Shane Stevenson is the Yemen Country Director for Oxfam and manages £25m of lifesaving humanitarian programming across the entire country. Shane has spoken at significant international events on Yemen during the past two years and will discuss the stark realities of the challenges to supporting the people of Yemen in the protracted crisis that is now in its third year. Shane has worked in the development sector for over eight years and has spoken publicly on the immoral, illegal and incoherent approach of the international community in their engagement in Yemen.
