Ella Al-Shamahi is a British-Yemeni palaeoanthropologist, National Geographic Explorer, BBC presenter and stand-up comic. She specialises in searching for fossils in caves in unstable territories. Since the war in Yemen began, she has been concerned with the lack of discussion about the impact on Yemen's people and heritage. Moreover, she presented and was the Associate Producer on the two-part BBC 2 show "Neanderthals; Meet Your Ancestors" alongside Hollywood actor Andy Serkis and BBC Horizon: Body Clock.
